¹For Ink Efficient series, declared yields are based on the ISO/IEC 24711 method using the ISO/IEC 24712 colour chart, and simulation of continuous printing.

²For MegaTank series, document yields are based on Canon internal test method using the ISO/IEC 24712 colour chart, printed in Economy mode with standard size replacement ink bottles. Colour yield is based on composite colour (C, M, Y). Photo yield is based on Canon internal test method using the ISO/IEC 29103 chart. All values are based on simulation of continuous printing.

³For detailed specifications and Canon's yield measurement method, please refer to the product information at <https://sg.canon>.
