•For detailed specifications and Canon's yield measurement method, please refer to the product information at <https://sg.canon>.
